ECOOP'99 Workshops, Panels, and Posters Lisbon, Portugal, June 14-18, 1999 Proceedings This book constitutes the joint refereed post-conference proceedings of 12 workshops held in conjunction with the 11th European Conference on Object-Oriented Programming, ECOOP '97, in Jyväskylä, Finland, in June 1997. The volume presents close to 100 revised selected contributions, including surveys by the respective workshop organizers. The wealth of up-to-date information provided spans the whole spectrum of Object Technologies, from theoretical and foundational issues to applications in a variety of domains. Dr. Max Jalowski designs strategies for revolutionizing workshops by introducing persuasive technology. His results show that investigating the behavior of participants in design workshops offers various application potentials for persuasive technology. He presents scenarios how established persuasive technologies can be used in participatory design and how new technologies can be designed. Furthermore, he presents four artifacts for the application in workshops which contribute to the generation of design knowledge. Finally, he derives design principles to support future applications and research. About the author Dr. Max Jalowski is a postdoctoral researcher at Friedrich-Alexander-Universität Erlangen-Nürnberg (FAU), Department of Information Systems, Chair of Information Systems – Innovation and Value Creation (Prof. Dr. Kathrin M. Möslin). His research focuses on designing technologies, persuasive technology, user behavior in creative processes and digital innovation. For the 7th time in its history, in cooperation with Springer-Verlag, the European Conference on Object-Oriented Programming (ECOOP) conference series is glad to offer the object-oriented research community the ECOOP 2001 Workshop Reader, a compendium of workshop reports, panel transcripts, and poster abstracts pertaining to the ECOOP 2001 conference, held in Budapest from 18 to 22 June, 2001. ECOOP 2001 hosted 19 high-quality workshops covering a large spectrum of research topics. The workshops attracted 460 participants on the first two days of the conference. Originally 22 workshops were chosen from 26 proposals by a workshop selection committee, following a peer review process. Due to the overlaps in the areas of interest and the suggestions made by the committee six of the groups decided to merge their topics into three workshops. This book contains information on the panel, poster session, and 17 workshop reports, for which we have to thank our workshop organizers, who did a great job in preparing and formatting them. The reports are organized around the main line of discussion, comparing the various approaches and giving a summary on the debates. They also include the list of participants, affiliations, contact information, and the list of contributed position papers. Although they usually do not include abstracts or excerpts of the position papers, they do give useful references to other publications and websites, where more information may be found.
